

AGENDA

TUESDAY INSPIRATION

"The world does not run on the number of certificates one has, but on the skills our hands have. Let the youth dream big and aim for the sky. The work of a government should be to open doors."
Prime Minister of India Narendra Modi

Tuesday, May 9, 2023

Attire: CTSO Business Casual (no shorts or jeans) CTSO Polo or Conference Shirt Preferred

7:30 AM Breakfast at the Embassy Suites

8:30 AM The Future Challenges for Government and Government Leaders Part I
Location: River City Ballroom
Presenter: Jim Richardson, Capitol Leadership Event Team
Exponential technological and knowledge growth are driving change. Challenges are coming at an increasingly rapid clip. These changes are and will increasingly pressure government systems and structure. Your world is about to be rocked by a generation that doesn't even exist yet. What will be demanded of government and leaders?

9:00 AM The View from Leadership
Location: River City Ballroom
Presenter: The Honorable Chad Mayes, Former Assembly Republican Leader
"Politics, Partisanship, Partnership, and Integrity"

10:00 AM The Future Challenges for Government and Government Leaders Part II
Location: River City Ballroom

10:45 AM Celebration & Recognition
Location: River City Ballroom

- Team Take Aways
- Connecting Your CTSO Network
- Celebration

11:31 AM Return Home to Influence California's Golden Future!